Mendy,

I would like to get this issue behind us so that both the State of Nevada and Mr. Barengo can move forward. As such, would there be any negotiating opportunity to accept the negotiated deal suggested by Sen. Townsend along with some sort of reprimand issued for the unlicensed activity that will not hurt his application for a gaming license? If you can think of a way to do something like this, I would greatly appreciate it. Thanks.

Governor,

Capitol Police would like to use some of the DPS seizure funds to purchase tasers. This would have no impact on general funds. Apparently, Governor Guinn told them no, so they wanted to check to see if the policy remains the same.

Personally, I think giving those guys a good non-lethal way to control problems is a good thing. If we ever had a situation in our capitol, like what recently happened in Colorado, knocking someone down with a taser would be the best resolution.

Jeff Silvestri is a fine attorney who comes from a family with a deep history in public service in Las Vegas. Mendy and I interviewed Jeff last year and we asked if he or his firm had any clients that would pose a conflict and he said no. He is solidly pro-business. I know Jeff and he is very honest and squeaky clean. Josh can run a background check to confirm all of this. I told Mark James that he will enjoy working with Jeff. Brent Bell, who represented that taxi companies on the Governor's transition team, also knows Jeff well. I stand firmly behind Mendy's selection of Jeff Silvestri. There should be no uproar over this.

Well I am disgusted - I can understand a nail in the tire - but not Brad - this is why I stopped having staff meetings the first time because everyone blows them off - the only reason I started again was because this came out of the staff retreat. Also Nick showed up after the meeting was essentially over - and that is another thing we need to discuss - did you ever speak with Brad about his phone call to the IRS - and also Nick who just does what it is he wants to do and ignores anything else. Nick is also wandering off the reservation and has been speaking with one of the casinos in town about assisting them with a lawsuit which he has no business being involved in. I know because they called me - all of this has ramifications for the Governor - if anyone ever gets ahold of the information we are going to have to defend the actions - I have talked repeatedly to you about Nick and the issue with Brad just surfaced. Why would any staff member call the IRS about the status of a money laundering case for PURE on behalf of the Governor - this has to stop now.

Dianne,
 I had a nail in my tire and had to get it fixed, so I was unable to attend. Before the meeting I informed Judy and Deanna of this, so perhaps they did not pass this on to you. I would have been there otherwise. There was some confusion about Brad. He had asked me if he needed to attend the "meeting" and earlier I asked Judy if he needed to Auto Task Force meeting, something that Brad had been assisting on in the past. After speaking with Brad, Judy and I didn't feel he needed to attend that meeting. I excused Brad for that "meeting". We simply were talking about two different meetings. Sorry for the confusion.
 Thank you.

Finally, I have asked that Mike attend the CC Advisory Council on my behalf. This is not an optional decision for Mike. He is the Chief of Staff and knows the budget issues as well as anyone. And, he needs to represent the Governor at this meeting. These people have set up an ambush on the K-12 funding and Mike needs to be prepared to deal with them effectively. Mr. Governor

As your representative to the Nevada Military Blue Ribbon Panel, I am forwarding a draft letter for your consideration, to be put in proper state office format, and sent to the Chairman of the Panel, Brig Gen Bill Burks. It gives interim guidance to the Panel for the final implementation phases, which will take longer than originally expected. It also sets forth another of the interim recommendations you and I spoke about, specifically tasking the preparation of a package for your staff's review to stand up the Nevada Military Support Team similar to the Nellis Community Support Team. This team will help in all of the communities in the State and work not only to develop grass roots support for the military personnel and families, but also help with defense related economic development in several of the rural counties.

I have carefully worded the letter to achieve the desired results but there is no pride of authorship. I believe that General Burks would like to have the letter to read and present to the rest of the Panel prior to our May meeting which will be the first week of May, if possible.

Well, the letter still needs to go out, because it is not a question of "not asking for the tickets", but rather that there was a request for better seating and Nick "accepted" the "free" tickets. It doesn't matter whether or not he "asked" for them. Nick has a rather influential position in the administration and the gift of tickets could be viewed wrongly and we need to control the perception of influence peddling in a potential news story.

Nick Mike and I met - Mike said he didn't think that Nick had done anything wrong - because Nick said he didn't - and because the cost of the tickets was not substantial. Nick said he just called his friend to get good seats and they offered the tickets - mike said it was a he said she said situation and it could not be proven. So that's where it sits. He told Nick to write a letter saying that he did not ask for the tickets.

Dianne,
Did we send the letter we talked about to Nick? Secondly, it is important to me that we document our actions regarding Nick's actions just in case there is ever a question raised about this issue.

Finally, I have asked that Mike attend the CC Advisory Council on my behalf. This is not an optional decision for Mike. He is the Chief of Staff and knows the budget issues as well as anyone. And, he needs to represent the Governor at this meeting. These people have set up an ambush on the K-12 funding and Mike needs to be prepared to deal with them effectively. Please pass this information on to Mike. Thanks,

Jim Gibbons
Governor

First and foremost - Nick was granted complete exoneration with regard to asking the Grand

Sierra for tickets from Mike - now Mike is refusing to go to the Clark County School Board's Advisory Council to give a presentation in favor of coming to Carson City to attend the Grand opening of the Marriot with Gary Goetz - Governor this is enough - Mike needs to stay in Las Vegas and do what it is you asked him to do and I can cover you at the Grand opening of the Marriot - enough is enough

Governor,
There is some confusion here. I did not refuse to go to this meeting because of a hotel opening. For several months, I have been coordinating meetings with Garry Goett and NDOT. I know Garry mentioned this to you as the Black Tie event. Garry personally requested I be with him at meetings on the 6th. I am just trying to keep him happy. He likes working with me and wants me to be staff person from your office at this particular meeting. If you still want me to go to this other meeting, I will let him know that you have requested I be elsewhere. I will do what you want.

Thank you.

Governor,
I just ran into Walt Ruffles and asked him about this meeting. He said it is about 15 high school students. This is not an abush and he told me quite frankly not that big of deal.
I think Anthony can handle this fine, but again I will do whatever you want.
